ALZHEIMER'S ALLIANCE OF SMITH COUNTY
MOURNS THE DEATH OF LOUIS OWEN

TYLER – The Alzheimer's Alliance of Smith County is saddened to learn of the death of Tyler businessman and philanthropist Louis Owen. Mr. Owen and his wife, Peaches, have been generous supporters of the Alzheimer's Alliance and members of our Memory Maker Leadership Circle since 2010, helping thousands of families in Smith County affected by dementia.

“Mr. Owen and his family are pillars of our community,” said Stephanie Taylor, executive director at the Alzheimer's Alliance. “His legacy lives on in the countless lives they have changed with their generosity.”

The Alzheimer's Alliance of Smith County offers our sincerest condolences and prayers to the Owen family and our lasting admiration for Mr. Owen and his work throughout East Texas.
